KQED Delivers the Bay Area’s Ultimate Election Resources

With the 2024 election quickly approaching, KQED is providing complete and comprehensive voter resources through our Voter Guide, live events and programming lineup. These offerings create opportunities for community dialogue and shared learning. If you haven’t already opened the KQED Voter Guide (available in English at kqed.org/voterguide; stay tuned for the Spanish version coming later this month), you can access it today. Created by KQED’s expert journalists, who uphold the highest ethical standards and ensure accurate and fair reporting, the Voter Guide empowers voters with detailed information on local, state and national ballots. From deciphering complex local and state ballot measures to learning where candidates stand on key issues to understanding the voting process, the KQED Voter Guide covers it all.

In addition to reading the guide, you can gain election insight by tuning in on Wednesday, October 2, at 7pm for Decision 2024: The Race for District 16 Debate, a livestream event where former San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo will face off against State Assembly Member Evan Low. On Tuesday, October 15, at 10pm on KQED 9, catch the premiere of Frontline: The VP Choice — Vance vs. Walz. Then, hear the experiences of students and activists from the 2020 election in Young Vote on Saturday, October 19, at 6pm on KQED 9. Learn about the key issues that will drive Latinx voter turnout in battleground states in VOCES Latino Vote 2024 on Tuesday, October 22, at 10pm on KQED 9. Throughout this issue, you will discover more events and programs designed to give you everything you need to make informed voting decisions.

Moments in Time: 70 Years at KQED

KQED public media has been informing, inspiring and involving the San Francisco Bay Area for 70 years. To celebrate our anniversary this year, we’re revisiting memorable moments from the past.

In 1991, Chef Jacques Pépin teamed up with KQED on the cooking series Today’s Gourmet for distribution on PBS. Pépin’s career took off, and the superstar chef produced many series with KQED for PBS over the next quarter century. Today, he continues to partner with us through his KQED YouTube series Jacques Pépin Cooking at Home and Ask Jacques.

WHAT TO WATCH

Nature: Silverback Documenting a Rescue Effort in the Congo

Ever since watching Ken Burns' The American Buffalo, a cinematographic triumph that examines the interconnected history of humans and bison, I've been dazzled by the power of documentaries. When I learned that filmmaker Vianet Djenguët was debuting a new feature-length documentary about gorillas in the Congo, I knew it would be something special. An observational film, Nature: Silverback follows Vianet as he chronicles grueling, yet vital efforts by conservationists to habituate a family of Eastern lowland gorillas in danger of extinction. If the gorillas become comfortable in the presence of Vianet and other humans, they can remain in their habitat and live freely even while tourists visit; tourism will provide an income source to help protect the gorillas and their natural environment.

For Vianet and his team, the biggest challenge is winning over Mpungwe, the family's 35-year-old patriarch, a notoriously protective, 450-pound silverback. Spending three months in the dense forests of Kahuzi-Biega National Park, Vianet learns what it takes to communicate and earn Mpungwe's trust. A truly fascinating journey and visually stunning film, Silverback brings us inside a modern-day conservation effort to create lasting bonds between humans and animals in the wild. Of the experience, Vianet says, "It just reminds me that we are so close to these creatures and they're doing incredible work for us. They are the gardeners of those forests that release oxygen for us." You will not want to miss this extraordinary story. Be sure to tune in on Wednesday, October 23, at 8pm on KQED 9, or stream it live on the KQED App.

SATURDAY NIGHT MOVIE

Mermaids

Saturday, October 5,
at 8pm on KQED 9

The 1990 comedy follows 15-year-old Charlotte Flax (Winona Ryder) who's tired of her unconventional single mother (Cher) frequently relocating their family. When they move to a small town and her mother begins dating a shopkeeper (Bob Hoskins), Charlotte and her 9-year-old sister Kate (Christina Ricci) hope that they can finally settle down.

THE MAN WHO STOLE EINSTEIN'S BRAIN

► Sunday, October 27, at 10pm on KQED Plus

Strange and true, this documentary tells the story of a Princeton Hospital pathologist who stole Albert Einstein's brain while performing an autopsy on the world's most famous scientist. Hoping to investigate potential biological causes for Einstein's brilliance, Dr. Thomas Harvey kept the brain for decades before returning it (not entirely intact) to the hospital.

THE FIRST LADY

With an all-star cast of Viola Davis as Michelle Obama, Michelle Pfeiffer as Betty Ford and Gillian Anderson as Eleanor Roosevelt, this series dramatically reframes American history through the eyes of some of its most memorable first ladies. I enjoyed watching Gillian Anderson as a revelatory Eleanor Roosevelt; the series delves deep into her personal and political life. The old-fashioned costumes are epic, and they help bring this intriguing story to life. These were eras of economic unrest, and it's refreshing to see the passion these women exuded; they continued to advance their voices until they were heard. Get exclusive access to the first five episodes October 1 with Passport, before the broadcast premiere this fall. —Emily Horne, Finance Associate

The Marlow Murder Club

Retired archeologist Judith bands together with her neighbors to solve a murder. Binge the whole series with Passport October 27, the night of its broadcast premiere.

Velvet, Season 1

The heir to the Velvet empire returns home, but the palace hides secrets and forbidden loves. In Spanish with English subtitles. Watch with Passport October 4 before the broadcast premiere on October 10.

Curious Traveler, Season 7

Emmy-winning journalist Christine van Blokland takes viewers on an enriching and entertaining "field trip for grown-ups." Watch Season 7 early with Passport October 15.
