With Our New App, KQED TV and Radio Are Always Just a Click Away

Did you know you can listen to KQED whenever you want from wherever you are? With the new KQED mobile app, your favorite KQED content is always just a click away. And personalization features ensure the KQED App brings you the stories and content you care about most.

The new KQED App is free to download and use. Stream live TV and radio, read news articles and stories, follow original podcasts and get notified when your top programs air – all without any fees or paywalls. To help familiarize you with the KQED App, we’ve compiled some of the most frequently asked questions here:

What can I do on the KQED App?

- Livestream KQED Public Television Channel 9 and KQED Public Radio
- Read Bay Area news and stories, personalized to your own interests
- Find the KQED 9 and KQED Public Radio schedules
- Be in the know about KQED Live events
- Immerse yourself in KQED original podcasts
- Watch KQED digital videos and shorts

How do I customize the KQED App with my favorites?

1. To personalize your experience, click on the “My KQED” icon in the bottom right corner.
2. Then, click the “Settings” icon in the top right corner; the icon looks like a wheel.
3. Click the “Customize Feed” button on your screen.
4. From there, choose the topics that interest you most, such as Health, Arts & Culture, News, Food & Drink or more. You can also select the geographic regions that matter most to you.
5. When you save your changes, these choices will populate your app’s home page, so that the stories you want show up at the top of your feed.

How do I get the KQED App?

Use your phone’s camera to scan the QR code below, visit kqed.org/apps, or you can search for “KQED” in the App Store and Google Play.

WHAT TO WATCH

Skeldale House Contends with the Start of World War II

At the end of Season 4, the characters in the idyllic fictional village of Darrowby were preparing for war. Veterinarian James Herriot (Nicholas Ralph) started basic training while his pregnant wife, Helen (Rachel Shenton), was getting ready for the birth of their first child.

We're transported back to the beautiful Yorkshire Dales as Season 5 unfolds during the spring of 1941. Stationed at Abingdon, James is away at his Royal Air Force post while Helen is adjusting to her role as a new mother. Baby Jimmy is keeping her and every other resident of Skeldale House on their toes.

Carmody (James Anthony-Rose), the newest veterinarian to join the Skeldale household, is eager to help Siegfried (Samuel West) manage the surgery's workload. And even though Tristan (Callum Woodhouse), Siegfried's younger brother, makes a surprise return, his arrival might not be a permanent homecoming. While everyone's making a contribution to the war, the housekeeper, Mrs. Hall (Anna Madeley), is leading their efforts on the domestic front.

Tune in weekly to see how World War II disrupts the people and animals of Darrowby while also bringing them together. The new season of All Creatures Great and Small on MASTERPIECE premieres on Sunday, January 12, at 9pm on KQED 9. Viewers can also stream the program directly from the KQED App.

COMING IN FEBRUARY

American Justice on Trial: People v. Newton Check your February issue for dates and times

This powerful documentary chronicles the murder case against Black Panthers' co-founder Huey P. Newton in the fall of 1968. Arguing that Newton acted in self-defense, his attorneys challenged the court to acknowledge the country's long history of racism and structural injustice. The case led to revolutionary change in the jury selection process.

NATURE: BIG CATS, SMALL WORLD

► Wednesday, January 22, at 8pm on KQED 9

Witness how winter floods bring both opportunity and hardship to Africa's three big cat families in this two-part Nature special. Set on the shores of Botswana's Gomoti River, the documentary explores how the cats must use their unique skills to avoid lethal encounters, outsmart rivals and thrive in a crowded neighborhood.

MY LIFE IS MURDER, SEASON 2

We are so excited for the return of Lucy Lawless in the quirky murder-mystery dramedy series My Life is Murder, and we are counting down until Season 2 premieres on KQED 9 later this spring. But Passport members don't have to wait: The new episodes will be available to stream starting January 1 — a perfect way to kick off the New Year! In the new season, Alexa Crowe (Lawless) moves from Australia to New Zealand to be closer to her brother, Will. (We've heard the real reason is that Lawless wanted to film closer to her home and to show off her hometown of Auckland.) Be on the lookout for some amazing guest stars in the new season, including Renee O'Connor (from Xena: Warrior Princess) and Star Trek icon William Shatner.

All Creatures Great and Small on MASTERPIECE, Season 5

It's spring 1941, and we return to Darrowby to find baby Jimmy keeping everyone in Skeldale House on their toes. Binge the newest season on the night of its broadcast premiere, January 12.

Vienna Blood, Season 4

The double murder of a senior public official and an arms dealer in police custody has shaken Vienna to its core. Can Dr. Max Liebermann and Inspector Oskar Rheinhardt stop the killer? Binge the entire season starting January 5.

Velvet, Season 2

Alberto, heir to the Velvet empire, returns home for his father's latest collection. But among the luxury and glamour, the art deco palace hides family secrets and forbidden loves. In Spanish with English subtitles. Available with Passport January 31.

Austin City Limits: Duran Duran

The British icons perform songs from their album Future Past, as well as greatest hits. Catch the performance before it expires from Passport on January 22.

Astrid, Season 4

Astrid, an autistic woman with a brilliant mind who works in the judicial police's library, helps Commander Raphaëlle solve the most complex cases. In French with English subtitles. Available starting January 3.

Sisi: Austrian Empress, Season 3

Meet Sisi, Europe's first superstar. With her beauty, love of freedom and promise to give the Habsburg monarchy a gentler face, this legendary empress inspired the whole continent. In German with English subtitles. Streaming January 17.
