THE PUZZLE LADY, SEASON 1

If you've been missing The Marlow Murder Club, I highly recommend The Puzzle Lady, a new series following crossword writer Cora Felton as she gets accidentally entwined in crime solving when a crossword clue is left on a body. Actress Phyllis Logan is wonderful as Cora. You may remember her from her role as Mrs. Hughes in Downton Abbey, and in this show she's delightfully quirky and endlessly watchable as she fearlessly sticks her nose into other people's business in pursuit of her case. The Puzzle Lady premieres on Thursday, February 19, on KQED 9, but Passport members can watch the whole season that night—perfect if you can't wait a whole week to see what happens next!

—Emma Casley, TV Programming Manager

Hope Street, Season 4

Return to the coastal town of Port Devine, where the lives and loves of the police officers interweave with their crime solving. Watch the whole season early with Passport on Sunday, February 1.

Independent Lens: Life After

Bay Area filmmaker Reid Davenport investigates assisted dying through the lens of disabled voices missing from the debate. Only available to watch on Passport beginning Sunday, February 1.

Rocco Schiavone: Ice Cold Murders, Season 6

An unorthodox police commissioner finds himself far from home when he's transferred to a mountain station. In Italian with English subtitles. Watch exclusively with Passport starting Friday, February 20.

The Porter, Season 1

A story of empowerment and idealism, this series highlights the moment railway workers joined together to form the world's first Black union. Streaming now on Passport.

THE SUI GENERIS 20TH CENTURY WOMAN

Barbara Jordan was indisputably a force to be reckoned with. The lawyer, educator and former U.S. representative's intersectional identity gets dissected in the new Independent Lens documentary The Inquisitor. From the revision of the Voting Rights Act to the 1974 impeachment hearings of President Nixon, Jordan made an impact. Recognized by her peers in both political parties alike for her undeniably exceptional political oratory skills, she was nicknamed "inquisitor." But little did everyone know the battle she quietly fought in secret. Find out more about The Inquisitor on Monday, February 23, at 10pm on KQED 9.

BLACK AND JEWISH AMERICA: AN INTERWOVEN HISTORY

► Tuesday, February 3, at 9pm on KQED 9

Dr. Henry Louis Gates Jr. traces the rich, complex relationship between Black and Jewish Americans. During the civil rights era, they forged civic and cultural bonds in defiance of racism and antisemitism. Defined by solidarity and strained by division, their alliance and its enduring challenges are explored in this four-part series.

NOVA: STONE AGE TEMPLE MYSTERY

► Wednesday, February 25, at 9pm on KQED 9

On a remote hillside in modern-day Turkey sits Göbekli Tepe, the oldest temple on Earth. Groundbreaking new evidence reveals that a sophisticated community of settled hunter-gatherers lived here year-round for centuries, which could be the missing link in humanity's momentous transition from hunting to farming, overturning our understanding of human history.
